Case Study 14: Food & Nutrition Website

Healthy Bites – A Website for Healthy Eating

Overview

Healthy Bites is a single-page informational website that promotes healthy eating habits. It introduces visitors to the main food groups, shares simple recipes with calorie details, and suggests an example of a balanced day of eating. The aim is to make nutrition knowledge easy to understand for everyday users, students and families.

Objective

To design a clean, readable and attractive website that spreads awareness about balanced nutrition and encourages people to adopt small, healthy changes in their daily diet.

Key Features

- Hero section: a welcoming banner with the tagline "Eat Healthy, Live Better!" and an "Explore Recipes" button.
- Food Categories: cards for Fruits, Vegetables, Whole Grains & Millets, Boiled Eggs and Dairy, each explaining its health benefits.
- Healthy Recipes: Fresh Vegetable Salad, Fruit Oatmeal and Healthy Lentil Soup, with approximate calories per serving and preparation time.
- Daily Meal Plan: an example plan covering breakfast, morning snack, lunch, evening snack and dinner.
- Healthy Eating Tips: short habits such as drinking water regularly, choosing whole grains and limiting salt and sugar.
- Navigation bar and footer: quick links to Home, Categories, Recipes, Meal Plans and Healthy Tips.

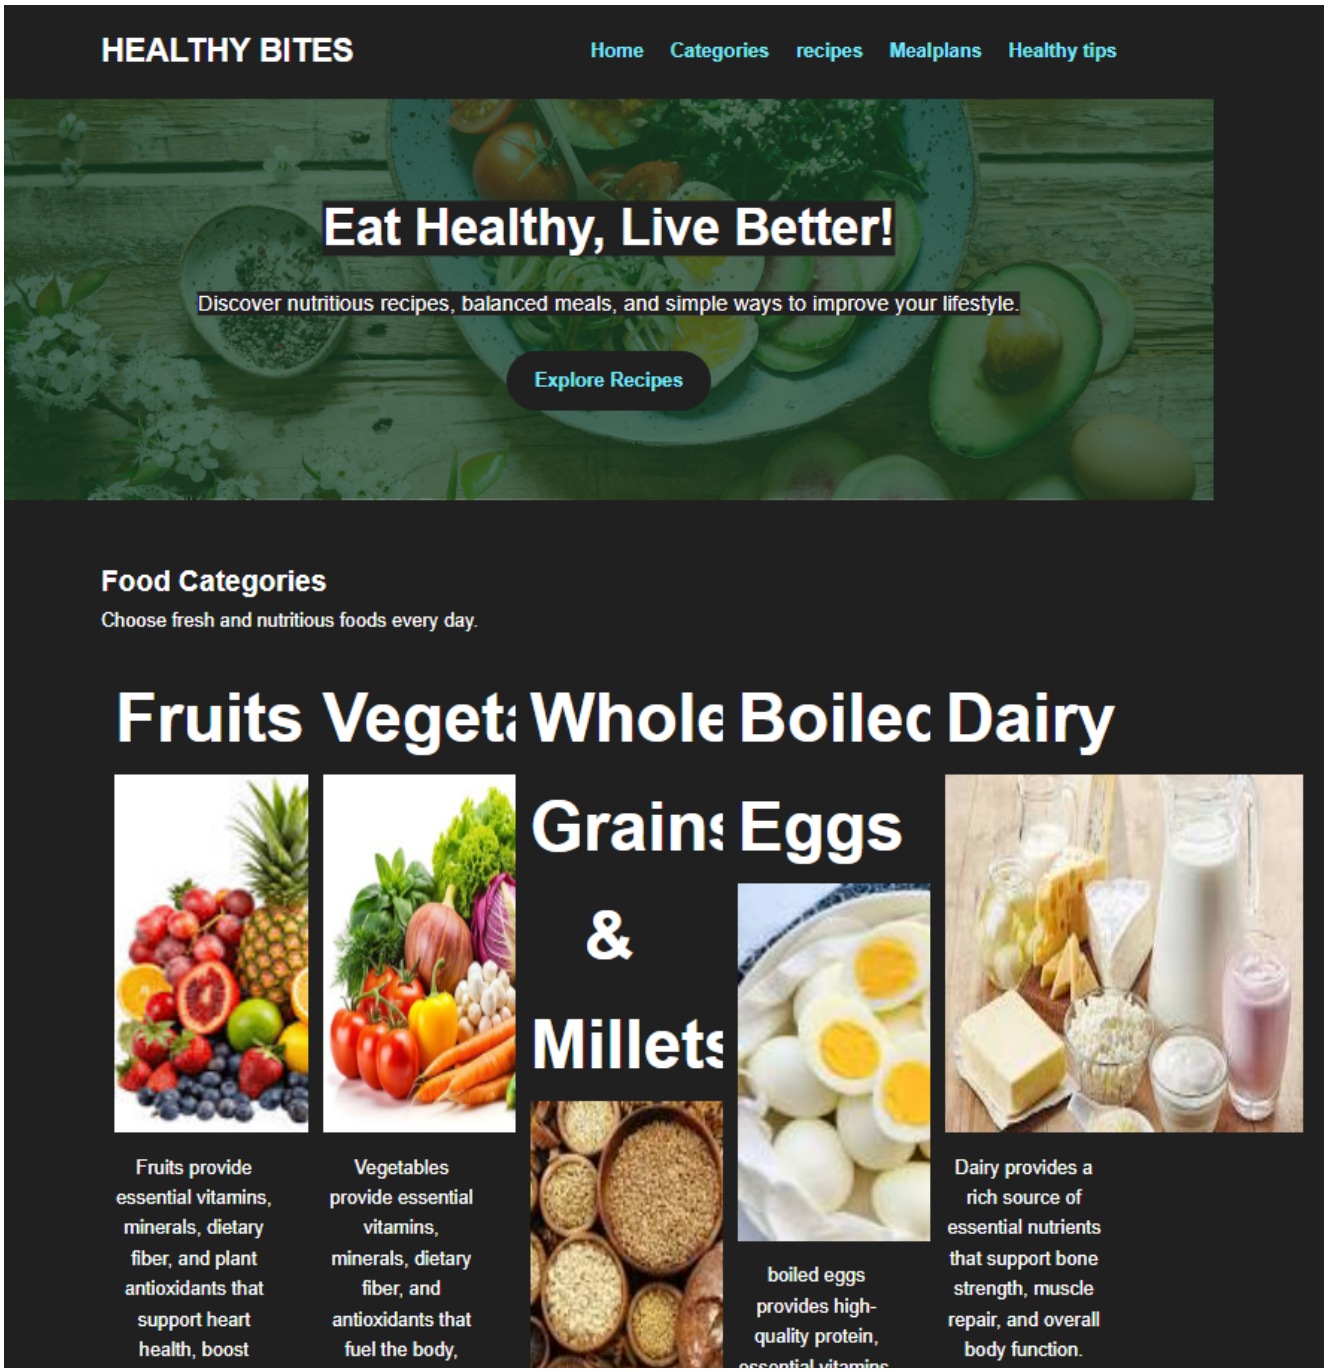

Design Approach

Dark theme with white text and cyan accent links, card-based layout with images, and a consistent heading and section structure.

Outcome

The website gives users a quick, practical guide to nutritious food choices and shows how structured content, images and simple layout can communicate health information effectively.

Case Study 15: Yoga & Meditation Website

Serenity – Yoga & Meditation Studio

Overview

Serenity is a wellness website for a yoga and meditation studio. It presents yoga poses, meditation techniques, instructors, class timings and membership plans in one place, helping visitors discover classes and begin a mindful lifestyle. The pricing and schedule are sample content for a student project.

Objective

To build a calm, professional and easy-to-navigate website that introduces yoga and meditation, showcases the studio's offerings and encourages visitors to join classes.

Key Features

- Hero section: "Find Your Inner Peace" banner with the tagline "Breathe, Relax, Reconnect" and an "Explore Our Classes" button.
- Welcome section: short introduction highlighting Mindful Living, Healthy Lifestyle and Inner Balance.
- Explore Yoga Poses: Mountain, Tree and Warrior poses with benefits and difficulty levels (Beginner / Intermediate).
- Meditation Techniques: simple practices including breathing meditation, mindfulness, body scan and guided meditation.
- Meet Our Instructors: profiles of Ananya Sharma, Rahul Verma and Priya Reddy with their areas of expertise.
- Class Schedule: a table listing day, class, time and level.
- Membership Plans: Basic (Rs.499), Standard (Rs.999, marked popular) and Premium (Rs.1,799) per month.
- Wellness & Healthy Living: articles on daily yoga, stress management and healthy habits, ending with a Contact Us call to action.

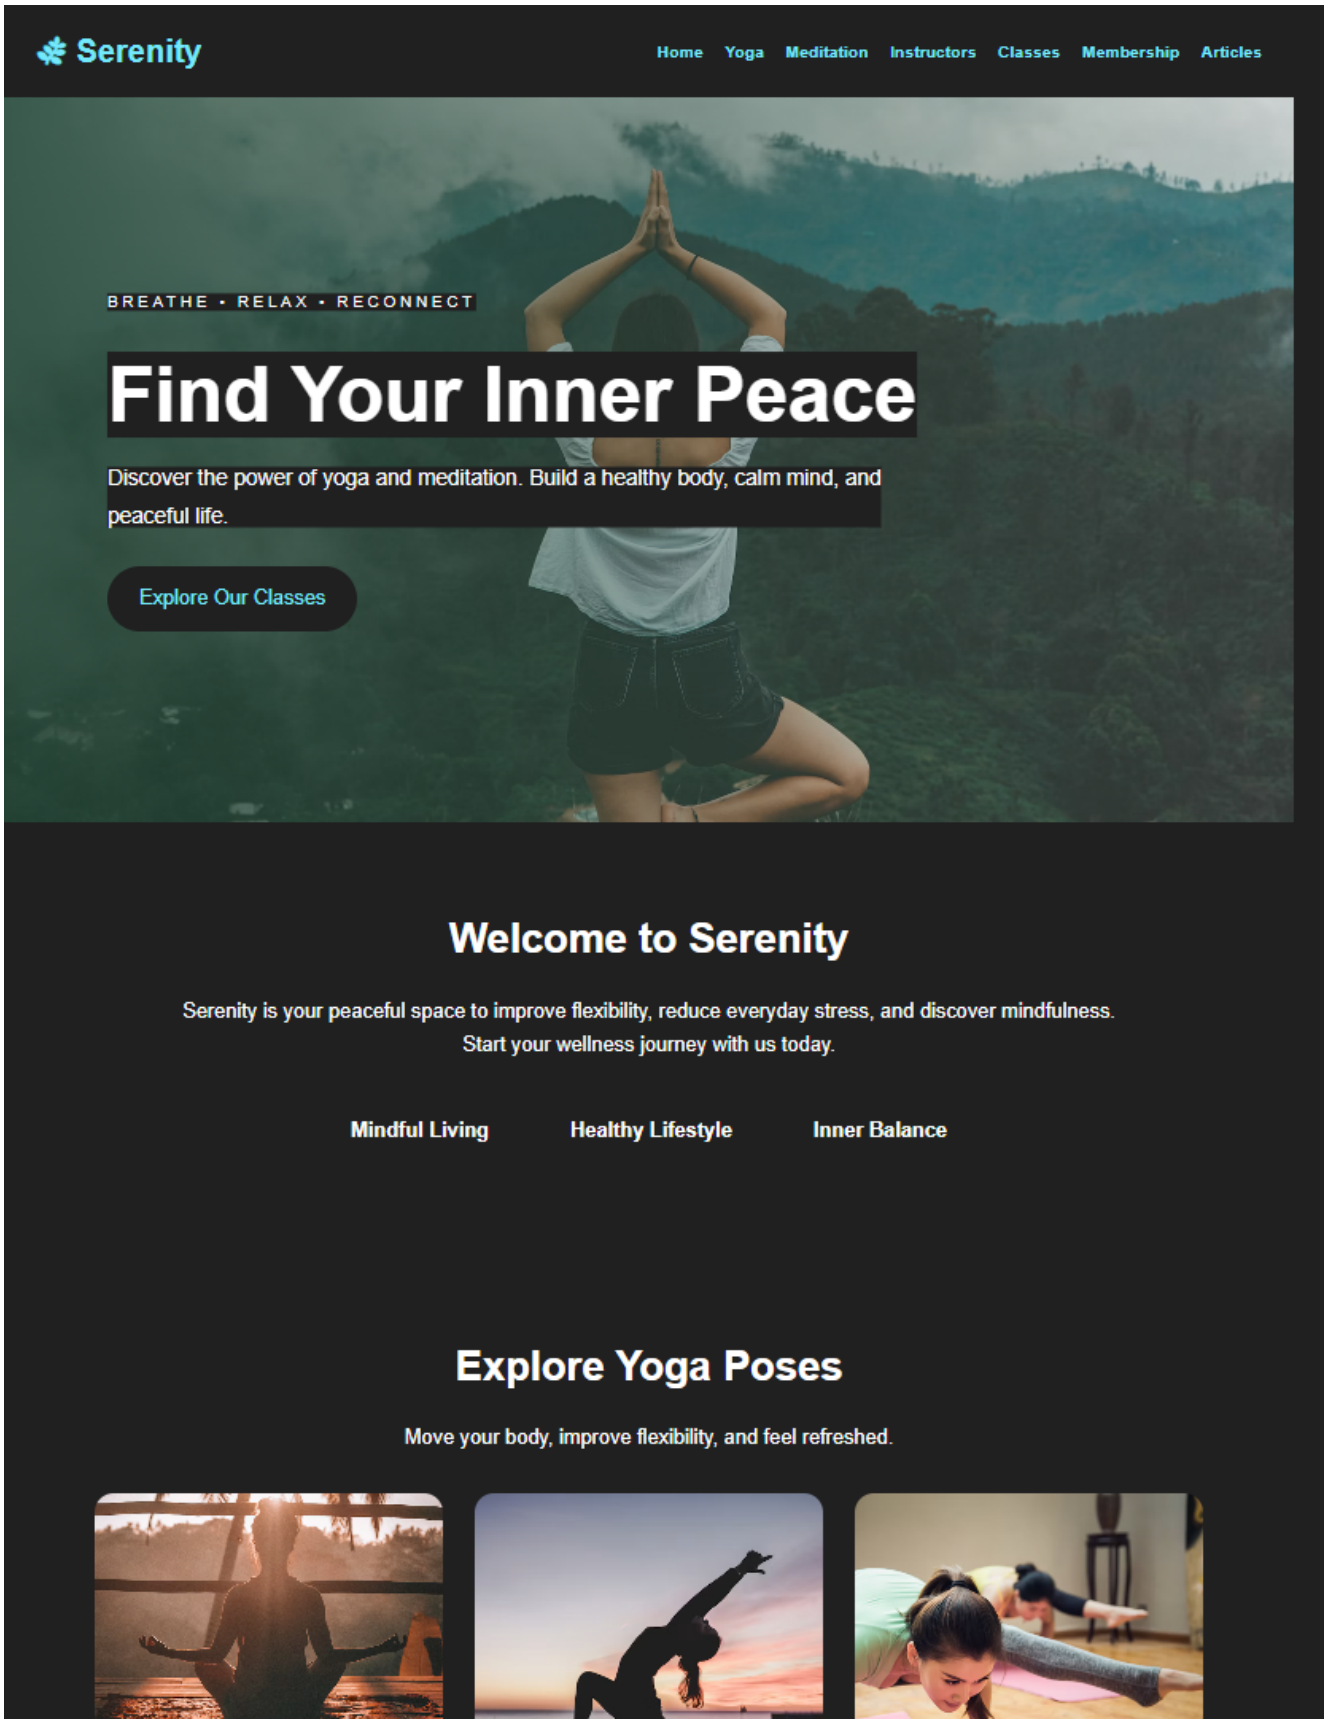

Design Approach

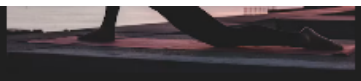

Dark, minimal theme with cyan highlights, rounded image cards, a clear schedule table and highlighted pricing cards for easy comparison.

Outcome

The project demonstrates how a service-based website can combine information, schedules and pricing in a calm, user-friendly design that builds interest in wellness activities.
